Tips

Safety & Maintenance

Your New Septic System

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTRACTOR</th>
<th>WORK DONE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Clean the tank periodically</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Check for leaks</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keep records of maintenance</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

Record of Service

Contractor

Phone Number

Installation Date

Type of System

Capacity
Looking in the septic tank can be dangerous.

Natural treatment process in septic tanks and can kill in minutes. Even just allowing anyone to inspect a septic tank alone can be hazardous. Toxins are produced by the system and can be harmful if inhaled or ingested. Be sure to exercise appropriate caution when inspecting a septic tank. Never

NEVER FLUSH

Coffee grounds, dental floss, disposable diapers, kitty litter, etc. into any drain.

DON'T pour toxic chemicals or harsh cleaners into any drain.

DON'T pour toxic chemicals or harsh cleaners down the toilet.

DO conserve water to avoid overloading the system.

DO call a professional whenever you experience problems with your system or if there are any signs of failure.

DO keep your system accessible for maintenance.

DO keep detailed records of inspections, pumping, repairs and other maintenance work.

DON'T allow anyone to drive or park over any part of the system.

DON'T pump anything over or near the system.

DON'T build over any part of your system or discharge excess water.

DON'T build over any part of your system or discharge excess water.

DON'T build over any part of your system or discharge excess water.

DON'T build over any part of your system or discharge excess water.

DON'T build over any part of your system or discharge excess water.

DON'T build over any part of your system or discharge excess water.

DO conserve water to avoid overloading the system.

DO call a professional whenever you experience problems with your system or if there are any signs of failure.

DO keep your system accessible for maintenance.

DO keep detailed records of inspections, pumping, repairs and other maintenance work.

DON'T allow anyone to drive or park over any part of the system. Keep a

Buried Sand Filter – DOS & DON'TS

Chemicals

Wastewater Treatment

County Health Department

Please contact the Expert

Warning labels and instructions for use:

Become thoroughly familiar with the products before handling calcium hypochlorite tablets.

Be especially cautious in the environment.

Residuals must be removed after distribution dispensers:

Waterworks: Just as important as chlorine.

Quickly and accurately measure in approved calcium hypochlorite tablets are very

be used.

Bleaches designated for chlorine disinfection, must tubs, sinks, designated for chlorine disinfection, must
tubs, sinks, designated for chlorine disinfection, must
tubs, sinks, designated for chlorine disinfection, must

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

discharge to the ground surface and leaves

William Law Requires wastewater efficient effluent which

William Law Requires wastewater efficient effluent which